DETAILED ACTION

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

2.1 Featuring drawing figures in a claim renders the claim indefinite because a drawing can only serve as an illustration of the claimed subject matter. The scope of a claim can never be ascertainable by looking at a drawing. Thus, claims 14 and 15, which recite figures 1 and 2 as the structure for the skin layer of the claimed particles, are indefinite.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-13 are allowed.

3.1 The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: None of the prior art references of record, singly or combined, teach an expanded polystyrene particle having an inner expanded polystyrene layer and a coating layer of vinyl-acetate-based polymer as claimed. The references instead teach expandable polystyrene beads.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
